

A famous children's song.

Do you know this song about London bridge.

It's a very well known children's song in England.

The first words appeared in the middle ages.

They tell us various eccentric ways of rebuilding the bridges.

Like all children's song it reveals a certain mockery of the bourgeoisie.

London bridge is falling down

Falling down, falling down

London bridge is falling down

My fair lady

Build it up with iron bars

Iron bars, iron bars

Build it up with iron bars

My fair lady

Iron bars will bend and break

Bend and break, bend and break

Iron bar will bend and break

My fair lady

Build it up with gold and silver

Gold and silver, gold and silver

Build it up with gold and silver

My fair lady

Gold and silver we've not got

We've not got, we've not got

Gold and silver we've not got

My fair lady

London bridge is falling down

Falling down, falling down

London bridge is falling down

My far lady.
